Re: General Electric Company v. LPP Combustion, LLC, C.A. No. 22-720-GBW

Dear Judge Williams:

As noted in LPP counsel's Motion for Leave to Withdraw as Counsel, General Electric does not oppose the withdrawal. D.I. 100. However, General Electric does oppose LPP's requested extension filed today to obtain replacement counsel, particularly given that the sole reason provided is "summer plans." D.I. 102. Since filing its initial complaint in the Western District of Texas, LPP—as the patent owner—has maintained its allegations of infringement for nearly three years now. Further, as LPP's counsel explained in its motion to withdraw, the "breakdown in communications stem[] from fundamental disagreements" between LPP and its counsel that have existed since at least June 5, 2024, the date on which the parties unsuccessfully mediated before Judge Robinson. D.I. 100 at 3–4.

Respectfully, summer vacation plans do not warrant additional delay.

Respectfully,

/s/ David E. Moore
